

BETHEL.

Mr. Ebenezer Moore of West Bethel, who drove team for Mr. Dana Hall, the past winter, took the job to haul the jam of logs on the bank of the stream. While at work last Friday, while helping roll the logs, the jam started suddenly and he was taken along with them into the water where he came near being drowned, several ribs are broken and other serious injuries and it is a wonder if he escapes with his life.

E. Richardson & Son were not able to run their mill a part of last week on account of water settling under the mill.

H. C. Andrews has had some nice top buggies arrive which he will sell at his stable.

George Robertson has arrived and he is ready to do your house painting.

At the Congregational Church, a vote was passed earnestly requesting Rev. Mr. Dowler to withdraw his resignation read from the pulpit, the 15th. It is not as yet decided to remain.

Mr. Cook was injured badly, hip put out of joint, three ribs broken and lost internally, at the Chapman landing while breaking a jam of logs last Friday, the 18th.

C. H. Grover has not as yet been able to leave his house, although improving.

The Bethel sporting club went to Portland the 17th, but were not successful in bringing home the badge although they best, yet their courage is good and say that they shall try again.

They are going in now and obtain a good level ground, grade and good shape, build them a building and everything in first-class order, to enjoy their sport at this pigeon shooting.

Monday, E. S. Smith, at his saw-mill, came near being hurt badly. He got caught and was carried around the shaft to the draw up quite a number of times.

LOCKYER MILLS.

Mr. Wm. Whitman bought a nice yoke of five year old cattle of John Chase for one hundred dollars.

The selectmen adjusted the taxes last week at the Mrs. Abram Hall.

Friday water was so high the mills had to shut down.

Our landlord has as nice a stepping horse as there is in this place; color, dapple gray.

We should like to see John Henry up this way with the kitchen cut.

Emery Young and family, who went to Portland last fall, has returned to his farm again.

The following are the officers in dist. No. 10: E. S. Smith, Secy; E. G. Curran, agent. Board led to E. Jordan, and the agent is to get word.

The following is the republican town committee: Eben E. Rand, Edward Penney, J. G. Richardson, J. H. Bennett, Ira C. Jordan. Delegates to District Convention: E. S. Smith and E. G. Curran. Delegates to State Convention: I. C. Jordan, and J. G. Rich.

WATERFORD.

Mrs. A. M. Metcalf had her dress making room dressed to a new coat of paint and paper. J. B. Field did the work.

Dr. C. M. Carlton and sons of Norwich, Conn., are stopping with Capt. C. L. Appleby and wife at the Waterford House.

Mr. Wm. Whitman moved into the village. He owns a paper and paper hangar by trade. We think anyone in want of a good workman would do well to call on him.

A. L. Stetson, once four weeks, has moved to North Waterford.

L. G. Stone is improving his buildings by a coat of white paint.

Mr. Plummer and family, also J. S. Grant and family, are staying at the 22d. Mr. Plummer is engaged in the lumber business. We hope to see Mr. Grant back sometime in the summer.

Leslie McKenney has rented Mr. Plummer's farm for one year.

Daniel Brown lost one of his best cows by disease Sunday.

Master Dudley Carlson took a very large and handsome hawk Monday.

The frogs are peeping; look out for smelts.

STOV.

Glifford Emery has bought and moved on to the Elwood Bemis farm, and his brother Frank has moved in with his father, J. W. Emery.

Quincy Stephens has let his farm to Alton Kneeland who has moved on to the place. His father and mother have gone to Chatham.

Mr. H. H. H. is five with steam mill there. His brother John and wife have moved in with his sister, Mrs. Russell.

Moses Eastman is having an addition put to his stable which will make it much more convenient than formerly.

James P. Bond is at work for Elder Hall of No. Fryeburg again this spring.

Water is plenty with us now, and the low lands on Cold River are all over for the season. The frost is very much out of the ground and our farm-seeds. Some have commenced to grow on the high places.

Miss Mattie C. Eastman has been engaged to teach in district No. 3.

Our painter, J. M. Smith, has gone to Paris to work, and the room Walter has hired with Wesley Emerson.

Leonard Emerson has quite a family, which he is to receive in 1884. These include all the panthers in town, except one old lady, who lives with a relative, for which they pay $50.

MECHANIC FALLS.

The Odd Fellows are to change their place of meeting soon to Lincoln Hall.

D. B. Holt's house has been purchased by Isaac D. Waterman.

ANDOVER.

Joseph H. Abbott of So. Andover, while at work in J. Lyman Ripley's saw mill, lost his foot very badly, the axe going completely through his foot entering the sole of his boot.

Every one is anxious to go "river driving" this spring. The principle drivers of the north part of the town are under the charge of Fred J. Rolfe and Horace Harmon, that at the south part, Frank Thomas. But several other parties are taking a hand in it.

Noble Small esq. is bossing a small fleet of one hundred thousand or less, (the Joe Chapman) is showing how he can break a "jam," by driving out the Sprague and Chapman lumber, the popular leader at So. Andover is driven out by Frank Perkins.

Sylvanus Post esq., who has been very sick for some time, is improving.

Two of our young men, F. W. Eaton and Sam'l Clark started for the west last Monday. The destination of Mr. Eaton is either Washington Ter. or Texas, that of Mr. Clark, the Great West with them success.

Several wild geese were seen in this river last week.

M. F. Corson hurt one of his hands very severely a few days ago. Cause base ball.

OTTISFIELD.
A Memorial service is strongly talked of to be held on Meeting House Hill.

Chas. F. Hancock is fitting up for the manufacture of custom clothing at his place.

The Maines Bros. and Sam'l Mayberry are doing a small business sawing wood with hand power.

The high school at Spurr's Corner is going with a drama and a grand exhibition.

MARK TAPLEY.
Stephen D. Hillson is doing a large amount of sawing of various kinds of lumber. Wood is not scarce.

We have news of the recent death of David H. Leonard, at East Otisfield. Mr. Leonard was a former resident of East Otisfield and one of our most prominent citizens.

John Brooks has a very fine colt and two years old of the Messenger and Morgan blood; stands 14 1/2 hands high; color, steel gray; perfectly kind and well broke, and his rider to be a step-gain if applied for soon.

Ansie F. Brooks is still living, but helpless and no prospect of his recovery.

EAST OTTISFIELD.
One school in district No. 1 commences the 10th of May.

Mr. L. E. Evans of this town is repairing his buildings a dark olive.

Mr. Albion Moody of this town owns a four year old heifer, past Jersey, of better in five days and sold a quart of milk a day from the milking. Mr. Moody has a herd of 100 cows.

Benjamin Howard, of No. Lovell, lost a valuable cow recently from eating parsnips.

WATERFORD.
Mr. Geo. McAllister, the blacksmith of Lovell, met with an accident a few days since, while sharpening a barrow tooth, he struck the tooth with a hammer when it flew from the tongs, striking him in the forehead, causing an ugly wound, and he is in the hospital, and is now confined to the house and under a physician's care. N. M. H.

The farm buildings of John S. Dunn were burned by lightning during the last. His outbuildings covering the last. His outbuildings covering the last. His outbuildings covering the last.

A. L. Stetson, once four weeks, has moved to North Waterford.

L. G. Stone is improving his buildings by a coat of white paint.

Mr. Plummer and family, also J. S. Grant and family, are staying at the 22d. Mr. Plummer is engaged in the lumber business. We hope to see Mr. Grant back sometime in the summer.

Leslie McKenney has rented Mr. Plummer's farm for one year.

Daniel Brown lost one of his best cows by disease Sunday.

Master Dudley Carlson took a very large and handsome hawk Monday.

The frogs are peeping; look out for smelts.

STOV.
Glifford Emery has bought and moved on to the Elwood Bemis farm, and his brother Frank has moved in with his father, J. W. Emery.

Quincy Stephens has let his farm to Alton Kneeland who has moved on to the place. His father and mother have gone to Chatham.

Mr. H. H. H. is five with steam mill there. His brother John and wife have moved in with his sister, Mrs. Russell.

Moses Eastman is having an addition put to his stable which will make it much more convenient than formerly.

James P. Bond is at work for Elder Hall of No. Fryeburg again this spring.

Water is plenty with us now, and the low lands on Cold River are all over for the season. The frost is very much out of the ground and our farm-seeds. Some have commenced to grow on the high places.

Miss Mattie C. Eastman has been engaged to teach in district No. 3.

Our painter, J. M. Smith, has gone to Paris to work, and the room Walter has hired with Wesley Emerson.

Leonard Emerson has quite a family, which he is to receive in 1884. These include all the panthers in town, except one old lady, who lives with a relative, for which they pay $50.

MECHANIC FALLS.
The Odd Fellows are to change their place of meeting soon to Lincoln Hall.

D. B. Holt's house has been purchased by Isaac D. Waterman.

Henry Poole is to start a weekly paper here.

The schools opened last Monday.

Rev. W. S. Jones is the new minister assigned to the Methodist Church here.

The M. E. D. A. played Nevada last Saturday evening to a large house in Murray Hall.

The Cong. Church gave an entertainment in Murray Hall on Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. L. Scoboria of New Gloucester preached in the Universalist Church in exchange with Rev. W. Hooper.

The union conference meeting under charge of the Rev. Mr. Waterman at Murray Hall next Sunday evening.

The shoe shop starts up this week.

A lot of witnesses were taken before the Grand Jury last Friday to give evidence against a man here for the sale of liquor. It is not yet known whether an indictment was found.

MASON.
John Needham of West Bethel has been sick for a long time and it is feared he will not recover.

A. S. Bean has his lathes in operation and is now at work turning plow boxes, giving employment to several men and boys.

ANDOVER.

Joseph H. Abbott of So. Andover, while at work in J. Lyman Ripley's saw mill, lost his foot very badly, the axe going completely through his foot entering the sole of his boot.

Every one is anxious to go "river driving" this spring. The principle drivers of the north part of the town are under the charge of Fred J. Rolfe and Horace Harmon, that at the south part, Frank Thomas. But several other parties are taking a hand in it.

Noble Small esq. is bossing a small fleet of one hundred thousand or less, (the Joe Chapman) is showing how he can break a "jam," by driving out the Sprague and Chapman lumber, the popular leader at So. Andover is driven out by Frank Perkins.

Sylvanus Post esq., who has been very sick for some time, is improving.

Two of our young men, F. W. Eaton and Sam'l Clark started for the west last Monday. The destination of Mr. Eaton is either Washington Ter. or Texas, that of Mr. Clark, the Great West with them success.

Several wild geese were seen in this river last week.

M. F. Corson hurt one of his hands very severely a few days ago. Cause base ball.

OTTISFIELD.
A Memorial service is strongly talked of to be held on Meeting House Hill.

Chas. F. Hancock is fitting up for the manufacture of custom clothing at his place.

The Maines Bros. and Sam'l Mayberry are doing a small business sawing wood with hand power.

The high school at Spurr's Corner is going with a drama and a grand exhibition.

MARK TAPLEY.
Stephen D. Hillson is doing a large amount of sawing of various kinds of lumber. Wood is not scarce.

We have news of the recent death of David H. Leonard, at East Otisfield. Mr. Leonard was a former resident of East Otisfield and one of our most prominent citizens.

John Brooks has a very fine colt and two years old of the Messenger and Morgan blood; stands 14 1/2 hands high; color, steel gray; perfectly kind and well broke, and his rider to be a step-gain if applied for soon.

Ansie F. Brooks is still living, but helpless and no prospect of his recovery.

EAST OTTISFIELD.
One school in district No. 1 commences the 10th of May.

Mr. L. E. Evans of this town is repairing his buildings a dark olive.

Mr. Albion Moody of this town owns a four year old heifer, past Jersey, of better in five days and sold a quart of milk a day from the milking. Mr. Moody has a herd of 100 cows.

Benjamin Howard, of No. Lovell, lost a valuable cow recently from eating parsnips.

WATERFORD.
Mr. Geo. McAllister, the blacksmith of Lovell, met with an accident a few days since, while sharpening a barrow tooth, he struck the tooth with a hammer when it flew from the tongs, striking him in the forehead, causing an ugly wound, and he is in the hospital, and is now confined to the house and under a physician's care. N. M. H.

The farm buildings of John S. Dunn were burned by lightning during the last. His outbuildings covering the last. His outbuildings covering the last.

A. L. Stetson, once four weeks, has moved to North Waterford.

L. G. Stone is improving his buildings by a coat of white paint.

Mr. Plummer and family, also J. S. Grant and family, are staying at the 22d. Mr. Plummer is engaged in the lumber business. We hope to see Mr. Grant back sometime in the summer.

Leslie McKenney has rented Mr. Plummer's farm for one year.

Daniel Brown lost one of his best cows by disease Sunday.

Master Dudley Carlson took a very large and handsome hawk Monday.

The frogs are peeping; look out for smelts.

STOV.
Glifford Emery has bought and moved on to the Elwood Bemis farm, and his brother Frank has moved in with his father, J. W. Emery.

Quincy Stephens has let his farm to Alton Kneeland who has moved on to the place. His father and mother have gone to Chatham.

Mr. H. H. H. is five with steam mill there. His brother John and wife have moved in with his sister, Mrs. Russell.

Moses Eastman is having an addition put to his stable which will make it much more convenient than formerly.

James P. Bond is at work for Elder Hall of No. Fryeburg again this spring.

Water is plenty with us now, and the low lands on Cold River are all over for the season. The frost is very much out of the ground and our farm-seeds. Some have commenced to grow on the high places.

Miss Mattie C. Eastman has been engaged to teach in district No. 3.

Our painter, J. M. Smith, has gone to Paris to work, and the room Walter has hired with Wesley Emerson.

Leonard Emerson has quite a family, which he is to receive in 1884. These include all the panthers in town, except one old lady, who lives with a relative, for which they pay $50.

MECHANIC FALLS.
The Odd Fellows are to change their place of meeting soon to Lincoln Hall.

D. B. Holt's house has been purchased by Isaac D. Waterman.

Henry Poole is to start a weekly paper here.

The schools opened last Monday.

Rev. W. S. Jones is the new minister assigned to the Methodist Church here.

The M. E. D. A. played Nevada last Saturday evening to a large house in Murray Hall.

The Cong. Church gave an entertainment in Murray Hall on Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. L. Scoboria of New Gloucester preached in the Universalist Church in exchange with Rev. W. Hooper.

The union conference meeting under charge of the Rev. Mr. Waterman at Murray Hall next Sunday evening.

The shoe shop starts up this week.

A lot of witnesses were taken before the Grand Jury last Friday to give evidence against a man here for the sale of liquor. It is not yet known whether an indictment was found.

MASON.
John Needham of West Bethel has been sick for a long time and it is feared he will not recover.

A. S. Bean has his lathes in operation and is now at work turning plow boxes, giving employment to several men and boys.

ANDOVER.

Joseph H. Abbott of So. Andover, while at work in J. Lyman Ripley's saw mill, lost his foot very badly, the axe going completely through his foot entering the sole of his boot.

Every one is anxious to go "river driving" this spring. The principle drivers of the north part of the town are under the charge of Fred J. Rolfe and Horace Harmon, that at the south part, Frank Thomas. But several other parties are taking a hand in it.

Noble Small esq. is bossing a small fleet of one hundred thousand or less, (the Joe Chapman) is showing how he can break a "jam," by driving out the Sprague and Chapman lumber, the popular leader at So. Andover is driven out by Frank Perkins.

Sylvanus Post esq., who has been very sick for some time, is improving.

Two of our young men, F. W. Eaton and Sam'l Clark started for the west last Monday. The destination of Mr. Eaton is either Washington Ter. or Texas, that of Mr. Clark, the Great West with them success.

Several wild geese were seen in this river last week.

M. F. Corson hurt one of his hands very severely a few days ago. Cause base ball.

OTTISFIELD.
A Memorial service is strongly talked of to be held on Meeting House Hill.

Chas. F. Hancock is fitting up for the manufacture of custom clothing at his place.

The Maines Bros. and Sam'l Mayberry are doing a small business sawing wood with hand power.

The high school at Spurr's Corner is going with a drama and a grand exhibition.

MARK TAPLEY.
Stephen D. Hillson is doing a large amount of sawing of various kinds of lumber. Wood is not scarce.

We have news of the recent death of David H. Leonard, at East Otisfield. Mr. Leonard was a former resident of East Otisfield and one of our most prominent citizens.

John Brooks has a very fine colt and two years old of the Messenger and Morgan blood; stands 14 1/2 hands high; color, steel gray; perfectly kind and well broke, and his rider to be a step-gain if applied for soon.

Ansie F. Brooks is still living, but helpless and no prospect of his recovery.

EAST OTTISFIELD.
One school in district No. 1 commences the 10th of May.

Mr. L. E. Evans of this town is repairing his buildings a dark olive.

Mr. Albion Moody of this town owns a four year old heifer, past Jersey, of better in five days and sold a quart of milk a day from the milking. Mr. Moody has a herd of 100 cows.

Benjamin Howard, of No. Lovell, lost a valuable cow recently from eating parsnips.

WATERFORD.
Mr. Geo. McAllister, the blacksmith of Lovell, met with an accident a few days since, while sharpening a barrow tooth, he struck the tooth with a hammer when it flew from the tongs, striking him in the forehead, causing an ugly wound, and he is in the hospital, and is now confined to the house and under a physician's care. N. M. H.

The farm buildings of John S. Dunn were burned by lightning during the last. His outbuildings covering the last. His outbuildings covering the last.

A. L. Stetson, once four weeks, has moved to North Waterford.

L. G. Stone is improving his buildings by a coat of white paint.

Mr. Plummer and family, also J. S. Grant and family, are staying at the 22d. Mr. Plummer is engaged in the lumber business. We hope to see Mr. Grant back sometime in the summer.

Leslie McKenney has rented Mr. Plummer's farm for one year.

Daniel Brown lost one of his best cows by disease Sunday.

Master Dudley Carlson took a very large and handsome hawk Monday.

The frogs are peeping; look out for smelts.

STOV.
Glifford Emery has bought and moved on to the Elwood Bemis farm, and his brother Frank has moved in with his father, J. W. Emery.

Quincy Stephens has let his farm to Alton Kneeland who has moved on to the place. His father and mother have gone to Chatham.

Mr. H. H. H. is five with steam mill there. His brother John and wife have moved in with his sister, Mrs. Russell.

Moses Eastman is having an addition put to his stable which will make it much more convenient than formerly.

James P. Bond is at work for Elder Hall of No. Fryeburg again this spring.

Water is plenty with us now, and the low lands on Cold River are all over for the season. The frost is very much out of the ground and our farm-seeds. Some have commenced to grow on the high places.

Miss Mattie C. Eastman has been engaged to teach in district No. 3.

Our painter, J. M. Smith, has gone to Paris to work, and the room Walter has hired with Wesley Emerson.

Leonard Emerson has quite a family, which he is to receive in 1884. These include all the panthers in town, except one old lady, who lives with a relative, for which they pay $50.

MECHANIC FALLS.
The Odd Fellows are to change their place of meeting soon to Lincoln Hall.

D. B. Holt's house has been purchased by Isaac D. Waterman.

Henry Poole is to start a weekly paper here.

The schools opened last Monday.

Rev. W. S. Jones is the new minister assigned to the Methodist Church here.

The M. E. D. A. played Nevada last Saturday evening to a large house in Murray Hall.

The Cong. Church gave an entertainment in Murray Hall on Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. L. Scoboria of New Gloucester preached in the Universalist Church in exchange with Rev. W. Hooper.

